SHERRIN MOTORSPORT TEAMS GEAR UP FOR BATHURST 12 HOUR RACE

In perfect race conditions on the legendary mountain today, the three Sherrin MotorSport teams set themselves up well during the Qualifying session for the WPS Bathurst 12 Hour Production Car Race starting at 5.45am tomorrow.

The Australian Motor Finance sponsored BMW 130i driven by the talented trio of Andrew Moffat, and Sherrin MotorSport Carrera Cup drivers, David Russell and Shaun Juniper (Car #9) will start tomorrow's race from position 12 on the grid (fastest lap 2:39.69).

Sherrin MotorSport's (Car #10) BMW 130i with a mix of past and present Carrera Cup drivers Dean Grant and Mark Cini along with experienced Porsche and Production Car campaigner Mark Eddy will start from position 17 (fastest lap 2:43.18).

Fuel tanks problems for Sherrin MotorSport's BMW 120i (Car #11), driven by the Sherrin brothers, Iain and Grant alongside team mates Stuart Jones and Big Cat Cruiser's, Jim Wallace were forced to withdraw from the qualifying session and will start from the back of the field (fastest lap 3:01.64).

Sherrin MotorSport CEO Alistair Bye said, "the teams are racing fantastically, all the drivers in each team are consistent and all are laying down great lap times."

"The teams have looked after their cars during the three Practice Sessions earlier and in Qualifying today.

"Unfortunately a fuel leak from Car #11 hampered their Qualifying session but this is easily fixed and all cars will be set and ready to race tomorrow."

Mount Panorama will come alive tomorrow as the WPS Bathurst 12 Hour Production Car Race takes to the circuit as part of the second annual WPS Bathurst International Motor Festival (BIMF) from 06-08 April 2007.
