

Day Two Juniper Racing

Team Juniper have enjoyed a rewarding weekend at Queensland Raceway in round four of Carrera Cup.

Team Manager Alistair Bye identifying consistent racing as the key, producing the teams most successful round to date in the Championship.

“Shaun’s been working hard on his technique this weekend and it showed on the track. I’m confident that he’ll carry these improvements with him into the next round.”

Team driver Shaun Juniper dug deep on day one to produced his best ever lap time for the paper clip track and continued his gutsy performance passing seasoned drivers along the way.

“The car set up was fantastic, very clean and overall it’s been a great race meeting for us,” I’m really happy with our results,” Juniper said.

TAG Heuer points were also up for grabs at round four, Shaun Juniper commenting on the importance of the competition, “TAG Heuer Championship is important for guys like me who don’t race all of the time.”

“It allows us to benchmark ourselves and see where we fit in the competition.”

Following round four, Juniper has closed the gap on ninth position in the TAG Heuer Championship and looks to round five to improve his ranking even further.

Juniper Racing Team head to Oran Park for round five of the Championship with TV coverage of the action on Channel 7 Saturday August 18th 3.15pm-3.45.
